MONETARY INDEMNITY

Not Regarded by Italy as Sufficient Remedy For Lynchings.

ITALIANS DON'T SEEK BLOOD MONEY.

Better Guaranty of Safety Desired. Protection Promised by Treaties Ineffective Because of State Laws—Federal Law Wanted

Washington, Dec. 25.—The Italian government has been renewing its efforts of late with the authorities in Washington to have our federal statutes so extended as to protect foreigners in cases arising within the jurisdiction of states, thus giving a federal remedy for lynchings and like affrays directed against Italians, such as have occurred in Louisiana, Colorado and Mississippi.

It is the exchange of views in this connection which recently brought on the discussion in the Italian senate, when Leon Fava interpolated the Italian premier as to the progress of an adjustment. Immediately on the arrival of the Italian ambassador, Signor Mayor des Planches, he took up this question which had arisen in connection with the lynching of several Italian citizens at Erwin, Miss.

In this connection Signor Mayor said: "Under the treaty between Italy and the United States the citizens of each country are guaranteed the fullest protection while residing in the other country. In the case of Americans residing in Italy they have exactly the same rights, the same protection, the same recourse to the courts that an Italian subject enjoys; the only exception is in connection with political rights. In the case of Italians residing in the United States, the treaty assures them the same rights and protection given to American citizens. Unfortunately this expression of treaty, so far as it relates to Italians in this country, is somewhat theoretical, for under the American system, which limits the federal authority over states, the central government is not able to give effect to the guaranty laid down by the treaty. We fully recognize the difficulties of this situation, which has been as apparent to the statesmen of this country as they have to those of Italy. We have hoped this would bring about the enactment of a law which would permit the federal government to carry out the guaranties of treaties. This would be a genuine remedy for affairs similar to those which occurred in Louisiana and Mississippi, and would prevent the periodical agitation over cases arising in the states. As these cases arose they would be assured of attention under the federal authority with careful regard for the execution of treaty obligations. Since the recent lynchings at Erwin, Miss., there has been more or less discussion of the payment of money indemnity. But in the view of the Italian government the question of indemnity does not enter into the case. There has been no suggestion coming from us, much less a demand, for a cash indemnity to the government. The Italian government does not ask blood money. At the same time the families of the victims, who are most directly affected, are naturally willing to listen to suggestions of a monetary indemnity, and when these suggestions are voluntarily made by the state or federal authorities we can do nothing more than be the medium for considering them in behalf of our people. Such indemnities are to the people affected, and not to the Italian government, which feels that there is a far greater question involved than any financial return to individuals. It is the real and the permanent remedy of having the federal laws give to Italian subjects the protection guaranteed in our treaties that we desire, and it is to this end that my exchanges of views are tending, rather than to the payment of special indemnities in special cases. What the Italian government desires is a system covering all cases."

Duluth Railway to Be Sold.
Duluth, Minn., Dec. 25.—By the terms of a decree in foreclosure the property of the Duluth Transfer Railway company will be sold at auction Jan. 3. The property comprises railway trains, switching yards and right of way from the depot to New Duluth. Captain T. M. Presnell has been designated as special master in chancery to conduct the sale, and his instructions state he is not to consider any bid of less than $500,000. The company was originally bonded to the extent of $1,180,000, and the amount of indebtedness is $1,240,221.

Philadelphia, Dec. 25.—The Union Traction company, which controls every streetcar line in this city and employs upwards of 5,000 motormen and conductors, will increase these men's wages from 18 to 19 cents an hour Jan. 1.

NAVY "HISTORIAN" BOUNCED.

President Ordered the Discharge of Maclay—He Doesn't Want to Go.

Washington, Dec. 25.—Edgar S. Maclay, the employee of the Brooklyn navy yard who wrote the "history" of the Cuban campaign as a text-book for the Naval academy, and in it denounced Rear Admiral Schley as a caltiff and coward, received for one of his Christmas presents a peremptory order of discharge from the navy. As Maclay refused to resign in obedience to the request for his resignation made by Secretary Long at the direction of the president, the president through Secretary Long ordered his dismissal. This latest action in the matter followed a conference between the president and the secretary, who took to the White House with him a letter from Maclay in response to the request for his resignation sent by the secretary last Saturday. In this letter Maclay submitted that he could not be removed or be compelled to resign without definite charges being made against him, and without having an opportunity to answer those charges. Although the civil service rules give employees of the public service the opportunity of answering charges that may be preferred against them, the president exercised his prerogative in the present instance and directed Maclay's removal, it being held that the latter was aware unofficially. If not officially, of the reasons which actuated the executive in taking the course determined upon. Secretary Long says this will finally dispose of the case.

Maclay Trying to Hang On.

New York, Dec. 25.—When seen at his home and informed of his dismissal from the navy yard by President Roosevelt, E. S. Maclay said: "I have written to the civil service authorities at Washington asking for a formal opinion on this subject. I shall be guided in my actions by the advice received from this source."

General Miles Is Silent.

Washington, Dec. 25.—Lieutenant General Nelson A. Miles returned to the city from his brief visit to New York. The general declined to discuss the question of the reprimand given him by the secretary of war for his published observations on the report of the verdict of the court of inquiry in the Schley case, and in reply to inquiries as to his future course in the matter said he had no statement to make. He did say, however, that the report that he would apply for a court of inquiry was unauthorized.

Marconi Leaves Newfoundland.

St. Johns, N. F., Dec. 25.—Marconi has left here for Ottawa. He expected to stay there but a short time and hopes to reach England by Jan. 10, passing first through New York. The inventor is gratified over the outcome of his controversy with the Anglo-American Telegraph company, as is evidenced by a letter from the Anglo-American company printed in the London Times. One of Marconi's assistants has accompanied the inventor to Ottawa. Marconi's other assistants have returned to England.

Was a Friend of Kit Carson.

Denver, Dec. 25.—G. G. Bangs, 74, a friend of Kit Carson, a veteran of the Mexican war, and a Colorado pioneer guide and Indian fighter, died at Alton, Boulder county. Mr. Bangs came to Colorado from Missouri in 1860. His death was caused by a severe attack of la grippe. He leaves one son and three daughters, two of the latter living in Salt Lake and the others in Denver.

British Losses at Tafelkop.

London, Dec. 25.—The list of casualties in the engagement fought by Colonel Damant's force at Tafelkop, Orange River, Dec. 20, wherein the Boers, who were dressed as British yeomen, defended a kopje against Colonel Damant's advance guard, is heavier than was first reported by Lord Kitchener. It now appears that the British lost three officers and 23 killed, five officers and 35 men wounded.

Tourists to Pay Full Tariff.

New York, Dec. 25.—The exactions on tourists arriving at the port of New York will, it is said, be made more stringent, and tourists arriving in this country will be called upon in future to pay full duty on all extra wearing apparel as well as on everything else not on the free list. In other words, according to a customs official, "tourists will not be favored at the expense of importers."

Two Children Run Down.

Salisbury, N. C., Dec. 25.—Ray and Milton, sons of John Ruffy, an employee of the Southern railway, were ground to pieces by a passenger train. They were returning from a Christmas tree entertainment and were in advance of their father. Zeb Trexly, who witnessed the accident, attempted to save the children and was seriously injured.

A Squaw's Confession.

Guthrie, O. T., Dec. 25.—Soda Fife, a Creek Indian, confessed at Vinita, I. T., to the murder of Louis Wilson, a prosperous former near Tulsa, in May, 1897.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVITY

Thousands Were Fed in New York by the Salvation Army.

THE BIG DINNER FOR THE BOWERY.

Churches Distributed Tokens of Good Cheer—President Roosevelt Sent Present to School Where He Used to Play Santa Claus.

New York, Dec. 25.—The distribution of charity throughout the city of New York for Christmas was conducted on a larger scale than ever before. Greatest evidence of this was found at Madison Square Garden, where 17,000 uncooked dinners were distributed before noon and 5,000 cooked dinners were distributed at noon by the Salvation army. Second in size was the Bowery dinner given to 5,000 from the lodging houses. In addition to this every church distributed Christmas cheer to many thousands.

The postoffice broke all records, and the receipts, which amounted to $50,000 Monday, reached $70,000 Tuesday.

The subtreasury Tuesday made requisition for $200,000 in gold to keep up with the demand for gold coins to be used as Christmas gifts.

The Day in Washington.

Washington, Dec. 25.—Washington seldom celebrated Christmas more quietly. Owing to the police regulations there were no noisy demonstrations on the streets. The departments were all closed, the chief officials generally spending the day with their respective families. The White House was closed to the public, and a large portion of the clerical force was excused for the day. The president put in much of the time in the residence part of the building, giving his principal attention to the children of the household, who were the recipients of many presents from parents and others. The smaller members generally hung up their stockings, and all found that "Santa Claus" had visited them and left liberal contributions. Later in the day all assembled in the family room and a general exchange of presents occurred and a jolly hour was spent. The family dinner was enjoyed at 7:30 p. m. at the residence of Commander Cowles.

Christmas Fetes in Paris.

Paris, Dec. 25.—The Christmas toy fair held along the boulevards of Paris presented its customary aspect this year. The many booths were attractively decorated, but the unceasing rains completely marred the usual street enthusiasm. The midnight masses in the churches were well attended, while revellers filled the many cafes and restaurants till an early morning hour. Mme. Loubet, wife of the president, presented Christmas gifts to the servants employed in the Elysee palace and their children. She afterward attended the fete of Alsace-Lorraine, held in the winter circus, where toys and clothing were distributed from the great Christmas tree to 6,000 children of indigent exiles from the lost provinces.

Canton's Widow Remembered.

Canton, O., Dec. 25.—Mrs. McKinley spent a quiet day at her home. She was urged to join the Barber family in their Christmas dinner at the old Saxton homestead, but she declined to do so. She did not wish to be so forcibly reminded of the Christmas days of the past as she would be by such a dinner. Mrs. McKinley's condition is as good as or better than it has been since the tragedy. Relatives who see her often state she shows gradual improvement. She remembered many of her friends with little Christmas gifts, and received flowers and presents from all over the country.

Present From the President.

New York, Dec. 25.—Miss Sarah Provost, teacher at the small district at Cove Neck, L. I., near Oyster Bay, President Roosevelt's home, received a generous check from the president. The check is to be used for the purchase of Christmas presents for her pupils. Mr. Roosevelt's children formerly attended the Cove Neck school, and before he became governor it was his custom every year to play Santa Claus and present gifts to the pupils.

John Bull's Christmas.

London, Dec. 25.—"Christmas for the third year in succession finds the country engaged in war," is the burden of the editorials in the London papers, and regrets are expressed that the casualty list issued today totals 49 men killed and 71 wounded. Satisfaction, however, is found in the fact that the process of attrition brings the end of the struggle perceptibly nearer. Compensation is likewise found in the loyalty displayed by the colonies.

Clothing Concern Failed.

St. Joseph, Mo., Dec. 25.—The Simpson Clothing company, a prominent retail establishment, has made an assignment. Liabilities $30,000, assets estimated at the same amount.

TERMS OF PROTOCOL.

Chile and Argentina Agree Upon a Truce to Their Trouble.

Buenos Ayres, Dec. 25.—The Tribunal, President Roca's organ, announces that the second proposal of Chile about ultima esperanza is acceptable and both governments will sign the following protocol:

Argentina will withdraw her police station from Cerro Pallique and transfer it to Los Morros, situated many miles to the eastward.

Chile will transfer its station to Puerto Consuelo.

The whole zone thus remains included in the disputed territory.

Senor Alcorata, Argentine minister of foreign affairs, sent a communication to Florencio L. Dominguez, the minister of Argentina to Great Britain, in which he informs the latter of the renewal of conciliatory negotiations between Argentina and Chile. This step was taken in order that Senor Dominguez may officially inform the arbitration commission and other persons interested in the matter of the new developments in the situation. Documents putting an end to the present state of affairs will probably be signed by representatives of both Argentina and Chile at Santiago de Chile in a few days.

Fighting in Philippines.

Manilla, Dec. 25.—The Filipino General Samson and all the other native chiefs on the island of Bohol have surrendered, with 28 cannon and 45 guns. During an engagement in Batangas province between the Filipinos and a detachment of the Twenty-first Infantry under Lieutenant Edgar T. Conley, one American private was badly wounded. A number of the natives were killed. The military prison at Subig bay has been re-established. A large number of Filipinos captured in Laguna and Batangas provinces have been sent there. The column under Colonel Dougherty is making a clean sweep of Laguna province, burning all the Filipino barracks that are found and a number of small native hamlets. Colonel Dougherty has taken many prisoners, and the Filipino loss of life during his operations has been heavy.

From Cleveland to Toledo.

Cleveland, Dec. 25.—General Manager Danforth of the Everett-Moore syndicate is pleased with the success of the initial trip of that road from Cleveland to Toledo. Of the further immediate plans of the company Mr. Danforth says: "Within two weeks cars will leave Cleveland every hour for Toledo and Sandusky. For the first few weeks accommodation cars will be operated between Cleveland and Toledo, on a six-hour schedule, stopping wherever necessary. At the same time limited trains will be put on to run the distance in four hours."

Scientific Expedition.

New York, Dec. 25.—J. B. Fairbanks of Provo City, Utah, arrived here on the steamer Andes from South American ports. He was a member of a party of nine which set out from Provo City to obtain specimens, or dead, of the fauna and flora of Central and South America. Others of the party fell sick and some of them were targets for rebel bullets in the southern portion of Colombia when they attempted to reach the coast in order to seek their way home. Finally all but Fairbanks succeeded in reaching the coast and found an avenue of escape. Fairbanks says that the trip was a scientific success.

Obsequies of Major Belknap.

Marion, Ind., Dec. 25.—Congressman Steele arrived in Marion from San Francisco, accompanied by his children, Mrs. Meta Belknap, widow of the late Major Hugh R. Belknap, who died over a month ago in the Philippines, and Cadet George W. Steele, Jr., of the Asiatic squadron. They brought home the body of Major Belknap. The body was taken to the Steele home to lie in state until the Steele family leave for Washington, where the funeral will take place, burial in Adlington.

Under Water Nine Hours.

Chicago, Dec. 25.—Captain Louis Sarcho broke the world's record for remaining under water in a diving suit. In a big tank at the Coliseum he lay immersed in 10 feet of water for nine hours. The best previous achievement of this kind was eight hours and 30 minutes. Sarcho made the performance novel by taking a telephone apparatus down with him and talking at will from under the water with friends throughout the city after securing connection by means of the regular telephone exchange.

Accused of Robbery.

Charleston, W. Va., Dec. 25.—Gordon Atkins and Frank Thompson were arrested at Scott, Putnam county, charged with holding up and robbing Postmaster Conly. Deputy United States Marshal Dan Cunningham made the arrest after an exciting encounter with the men. The postmaster identified the men.

General Alger's Condition.

Detroit, Dec. 25.—Christmas found General R. A. Alger resting comfortably after a very good night.

WRECKS AND FLAMES.

River Boat Destroyed and Several Passengers Perished.

VESSEL BURNED TO WATER'S EDGE.

Catastrophe Happened While the Ship Was at Its Wharf—Train Wrecked and Several Curs Reduced to Cinders—Other Disasters.

Memphis, Dec. 25.—The sternwheel steamer Sun, plying between this port and Fulton, Tenn., burned to the water's edge at her moorings at the wharf on the city front.

The boat arrived from Fulton late Tuesday night with 15 passengers, all of whom were asleep on board when the fire broke out. Of these three are known to be lost. O. Ranor and wife of Old River, Tenn., and Mrs. G. M. Tims of Richardson Landing, Ark. Their charred remains have been recovered from the wreck. The 3-months-old child of Mrs. Tims is missing. It is believed that all the other persons on board escaped.

The fire originated in a pile of seed cotton on the boiler deck, and was probably started by a spark from the furnace. The boat was valued at $10,000 and was about half insured. The cargo was totally destroyed.

The steamer was the property of G. W. Phillips and John Brennan, both residents of this city.

Dashed Through a Herd.

Mattoon, Ill., Dec. 25.—The southwestern limited, fastest passenger train on the Big Four system, was miraculously saved from being wrecked near Kansas, Edgar county. Engineer William White was pulling eight coaches filled with holiday passengers. Coming down grade at a speed of 60 miles an hour, near Adin Baker's stock farm, the engineer saw a herd of cattle being driven over the track. It was too late to stop, and with remarkable presence of mind White pulled the throttle wide open, and at its terrific speed the engine struck the herd in the middle, grinding 10 animals to pieces. Heads, hoofs and bodies of cattle were thrown hundreds of feet, and the whole train was splashed with blood. Only the train's great speed kept it on the track.

Another Blaze at Shreveport.

New Orleans, Dec. 25.—Fire at Shreveport, La., destroyed the furniture establishment of Jackson Brothers, involving a loss of $60,000 on stock and $15,000 on building. The fire situation in Shreveport is bad, and an agitation has been started in favor of building reform and improved fire apparatus, as 40 insurance companies have withdrawn from the city pending adjustment of conditions. The losses in the past year have been exceptionally heavy.

Train Wrecked and Burned.

Dallas, Dec. 25.—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas northbound passenger train was wrecked and almost completely burned six miles southwest of here. Three persons were injured, but none killed. The baggage, express and mail cars and two coaches were destroyed. The engine and one Pullman are all that remain. The engine is bottom up in the ditch.

Machine Workes in Ruins.

Rochester, Dec. 25.—The large factory of the G. S. Graham Machine company was totally destroyed by fire. Three firemen were hurt by falling walls, but none of them fatally. The loss is estimated at about $100,000.

Opera House Fire.

Deadwood, S. D., Dec. 25.—Fire destroyed the Deadwood opera house. Most of the contents burned, including a quantity of supplies belonging to the national guard. Loss $35,000.

Shaw Is Willing.

Des Moines, Dec. 25.—Governor Leslie M. Shaw was seen as he stepped from the train on his arrival from Dubuque. He said regarding his attitude concerning the secretaryship of the treasury: "The appointment of secretary of the treasury has not been formally tendered to me by the president. I have been asked if I would accept the position if such tender were made. I shall consider the matter somewhat further and decide it without unnecessary delay." The governor said that as deep as he cared to go into the matter at present, and would not intimate what his decision was likely to be. Those close to the governor here believe he will accept the position if it is formally tendered to him.

Carpenter Shot Down.

Beaumont, Tex., Dec. 25.—W. F. Steinman of the firm of Whitney & Steinman, architects and builders, shot and killed J. A. Kinney, a carpenter, who had been in the employ of Steinman firm. The shooting occurred when the stores and sidewalks were thronged with people. The trouble between the men grew out of a settlement for work done by Kinney.

LITTLE LEFT

Of McKinley's Policy After Three Months Have Passed.

[New York World.]
 Just three months ago President McKinley died. Just three months ago today at Buffalo Mr. Roosevelt took the oath of office as President and said: "In this hour of deep natural bereavement, I wish to state that it shall be my aim to continue absolutely unbroken the policy of President McKinley for the peace and prosperity and honor of our beloved country."

And the whole country stood relieved and grateful for the announcement that the dead President's policy would be the new President's chart.

Yet now that three months have passed since that pledge was so solemnly given and so loudly acclaimed by the nation that it had all the moral effect of a covenant into which the President and the people entered together, what do we see?

Mr. Roosevelt's first message to Congress is an absolute rejection of the main feature of Mr. McKinley's policy as he outlined it in his very able speech at the Buffalo Exposition, and which proved to be his farewell message to the country. That speech was received with approbation that was not limited by party lines, but was national in its character. Its keynote was—reciprocity. Its gist was contained in these memorable words:

"The period of exclusiveness is past. The expansion of our trade and commerce is the pressing problem. Commercial wars are unprofitable. A policy of good-will and friendly relations will prevent reprisals. Reciprocity treaties are in harmony with the spirit of the times; measures of retaliation are not."

In President Roosevelt's message there is nothing like that. He has practically repudiated it all—and the reciprocity treaties are dead.

Nor is this the only, though it is the main abandonment of Mr. McKinley's policy. There is a new order of Federal appointments in the South. It may be good, but it is not the "absolute, unbroken" policy of McKinley. There is to be a new Collector of the Port of New York, the first Federal office outside of Washington—and he is not to be Mr. Bidwell, whom Mr. McKinley had decided to reappoint. And the chief consular and Senatorial representative of President Roosevelt is—not Mr. Hanna.

In fine, three months after the new President's promise to "continue absolutely unbroken" Mr. McKinley's policy, nothing material of that policy remains unchanged except that the war in the Philippines goes on and the tariff-sheltered trusts, the monopolies, the subsidy hunters and all the capitalistic combinations that thrive by Government privileges and favors continue to enjoy the Administration's first consideration and care.

SAD ACCIDENT.

A Young Groom Almost Instantly Killed Tuesday While Cleaning a Pistol.

A week ago this evening Mr. Asa B. Maxey, of Fern Leaf, and Miss Lettie Gallagher, of Murphysville, were married by Rev. Mr. Wightman, of Germantown. To-day the young groom of a week ago is in his grave.

Mr. Maxey shot and killed himself Tuesday morning about 11 o'clock at the home of Mr. Theo. Power, near Fern Leaf, for whom he worked. He had borrowed a pistol some days before, having anticipated trouble. Tuesday morning he asked for the oil can, saying he intended cleaning the pistol and returning it to the owner. Taking the can he went to his room. Shortly afterwards a shot was heard, and members of the family on going to the room found him speechless, suffering from a wound in his left breast. He expired in a few minutes. The oil can was in front of the chair, and the weapon was at one side, on the floor. The bullet had cut one of the main arteries near the heart.

It was reported Maxey had committed suicide, but at the inquest held later by Coroner Wood, the above, with other facts, was brought out and the jury returned a verdict that the shooting was accidental.

A grain of sand in the eye can cause excruciating agony. A grain of pepper in place of the grain of sand intensifies the torment. The pain is not confined to the organs affected. The whole body feels the shock of that little irritating particle. It is so when there is any derangement or disorder of the delicate womanly organs. The disorder may seem trivial but the whole body feels it. The nervous system is disordered. There are fretfulness, irritability, sultriness and depression of spirits. The general health of woman depends on the local health of the organs peculiarly feminine. Remove the drains, ulcerations, bearing down pains, and other afflictions of woman, and the whole body feels the benefit. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a specific for the diseases that undermine the strength of women. It is free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics, poisons which enter into many other preparations for woman's use. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

A RIP ROARING ROUSING SUCCESS

That's what BARKLEY'S first Christmas distribution plan proved to be. Santa Claus, though a little "off color," appeared on about schedule time and at once got down to the "business end" of the affair. First,	6186
Second,	6960
Third,	4298
Fourth,	8071
Fifth,	2551
Sixth,	1122
Seventh,	4261
Eighth,	2187
Ninth,	2264
Tenth,	5262
Eleventh,	2473
Twelfth,	2901

Holders of these coupons will please present same for redemption at their earliest convenience.

THE LUCKY NUMBERS.

Barkley's Prize Distribution Christmas Morning Attracted a Very Large Crowd.

The biggest crowd ever seen at one business house in Maysville packed Barkley's cash shoe store and thronged the street in front of it Christmas morning from 10 to 11 o'clock, the occasion being the distribution of $100 in gold, (divided into twelve prizes), and a large number of souvenirs among the patrons of the house. The immense crowd was a striking object lesson showing what a liberal and judicious use of printers' ink will do.

Since the firm's offer was made a few months ago the purchaser of every dollar's worth of shoes has received a coupon entitling him or her to share in the distribution. That the liberal offer attracted an immense patronage was evident from the big crowd.

The distribution was to take place in the west window of the store at 10:30 a. m., but when the time arrived Santa and the committee could not reach the window, as the store was packed and jammed. The distribution therefore took place in one of the second story windows.

The committee in charge was composed of Messrs. J. D. Dye and David Calhoun. Stubs corresponding to each coupon were placed in a peck measure and shaken up and then "Santa" standing on the window ledge, reached behind him and drew a stub from the measure, Mr. Dye announcing the lucky numbers as the stubs were drawn. The list is published in Barkley's ad elsewhere in this issue.

So far only three of the prizes have been called for. E. R. Daulton, of Cincinnati but formerly of this city, secured the fourth prize, James P. Murphy, of Cottageville, the seventh, and Jacob Boone, of Stephens, Adams Co., O., the eight.

After the distribution of the $100, small presents were given out, all coupon holders sharing in this distribution.

Mr. William T. Keefer.

The remains of the late William T. Keefer will be brought to this city for interment to-morrow afternoon from Thomasville, Ga., where his death occurred Tuesday, of brain fever.

Mr. Keefer was a son of the late David Keefer, and was a brother of Mrs. C. C. Dohyas.

Mr. Clarence Dickson and Miss Laura Mason, of Orangeburg, were married Christmas afternoon by Elder A. E. Zeigler.

Mr. Wm. C. Gray, of Chicago, and Miss Sophia C. Williams were quietly married Christmas afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams.

Arthur Markland and Miss Mamie Conyers, of Bath County, were married this morning at the Central Hotel by Rev. Dr. Barbour. The groom is a merchant.

The most beautiful line of novelties in jewelry ever shown in Maysville can now be found at Ballenger's for the holiday trade. In making Christmas gifts, select something useful as well as attractive.

James Tudor and Philip Rossman, of Charleston Bottom, inhibited too freely Tuesday afternoon and got into a quarrel on Market street, resulting in Rossman shooting Tudor in the left hand. The bullet entered the ball of the thumb, a piece of it lodging in the wrist and another portion near the elbow.
